

Ref. REF.FI1802 Lovely Apartment with a Large West-Facing Terrace Alcazaba Beach

This apartment is situated on a raised ground-floor level in the first phase of the development. Access is almost at ground-floor level, while the spacious terrace is elevated, giving it greater privacy and the feel of a first-floor position.

The property remains largely in its original style, although the living room and main bedroom have been redecorated to create a fresher and more welcoming atmosphere. While it is not a fully renovated or luxurious apartment, it is very well maintained, comfortable and fully functional throughout.

One of its main features is the superb west-facing terrace, an ideal spot to enjoy the afternoon sunshine and, particularly during the winter months, the sun right through until sunset. From the terrace there are pleasant views across the gardens towards the sea.

The main bedroom has been lightly updated while retaining the original fitted wardrobes in the dressing area. The bathrooms both benefit from windows, providing natural light and ventilation.
